

Join CIVITAS for

Documentary Film Screening & Panel Discussion on the Closing of Locally Owned Neighborhood Retailers

Opening Remarks by Rosemonde Pierre-Louis,
Manhattan Deputy Borough President

~ Monday, May 4, 2009 at 7:00 pm ~

“Twilight Becomes Night”

Directed by: Virginie-Alvine Perrette

The Film's case studies include M&E - Madison Hardware, a long-cherished neighborhood business formerly at Madison Avenue and East 97th Street.

Film: Twilight Becomes Night is a 35-minute documentary film that examines the pivotal role of neighborhood stores in our individual lives and our communities.

Panel:

Matthew Bauer, Madison Avenue Business Improvement District

Carlton Brown, Full Spectrum of NY

Vicki Weiner, Pratt Center for Community Development

Shamsudeen Mustafa, Director, NYC Business Solutions, Upper Manhattan Center

Reception to follow

Park Avenue Armory, Veterans Room
on Park Avenue between East 66th and 67th Streets

~ SPACE IS LIMITED ~

Registration is required

Tickets are $10. There is no charge for CIVITAS members.

To reserve your spot,
email: info@civitasnyc.org
phone: (212) 996-0745

*For more information about the film, please visit www.twilightbecomesnight.com.
To learn more and get involved with CIVITAS, see www.civitasnyc.org*